ENGLISH GRAMMAR

1

This is "ENGLISH GRAMMAR" notes and was created by AMIRSOHAIL-EDUCATIONAL-CHANNEL

I hope this notes will be helpful for you.

Share the notes with your friends because,

Knowledge is a power and sharing knowledge is the key to unlock it.

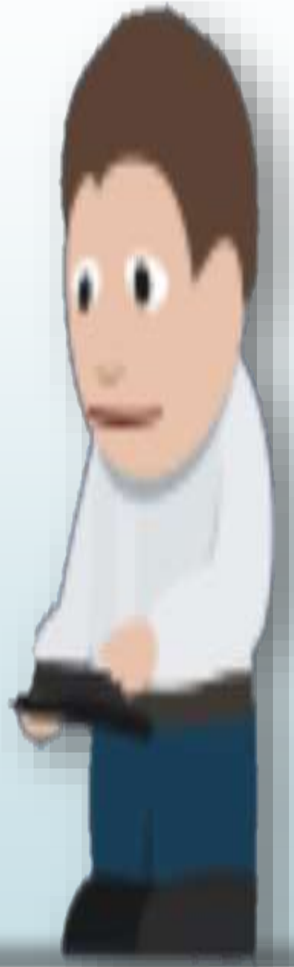

AMIRSOHAIL EDUCATIONAL CHANNEL

ENGLISH GRAMMAR

DEFINATION

English grammar is the rules and regulation of English language is called English grammar.

No one can learn language with out grammar
So if you want to learn language the grammar
Will be necessary for you to learn it.

3

SENTENCE

When we speak or write we use words. Because with out words how can We communicate?

So with out words we cannot communicate properly.

DEFINATION

A group of words like this, which makes a complete sense, is called a sentence.

EXAMPLES

- He is going to school.
- She is writing a letter.
- We are trying to understand.

SUBJECT

The part which name the person or thing we are speaking about this is called subject of a sentence

OR

A subject is the person or thing that doing an action,

PREDICATE

The part which tell something About the subject is called Predicate of the sentence.

EXAMPLES

He is going to school.

subject

predicate

Amirsohail educational channel

5 Kinds of sentence

Sentence are of four kinds

- INTERROGATIVE SENTENCE
- IMPERATIVE SENTENCE
- EXCLAMATORY SENTENCE
- DECLARATIVE SENTENCE

(1)INTERROGATIVE SENTENCE

DEFINATION

A sentence that asks a question is called an INTERROGATIVE sentence.

EXAMPLES

- What is your name?
- Is he not a bright student?
- Are you trying to understand? Etc…

(2) IMPERATIVE SENTENCE

DEFICATION

A sentence that express a command, request or advice is called an IMPERATIVE sentence.

EXAMPLES

- please help me with the boxes. (request)
- Bring me another tea. (command)
- Don't go there alone at night. (advice'/ suggestion)

(3) EXCLAMATORY SENTENCE

DEFINATION

A sentence that expresses strong feeling is called an EXCLAMATORY sentence.

EXAMPLES

- Wow! It is brilliant idea!
- What a lovely dress you have!
- Alas! we loss the match. Etc…

(4) DECLARATIVE SENTENCE

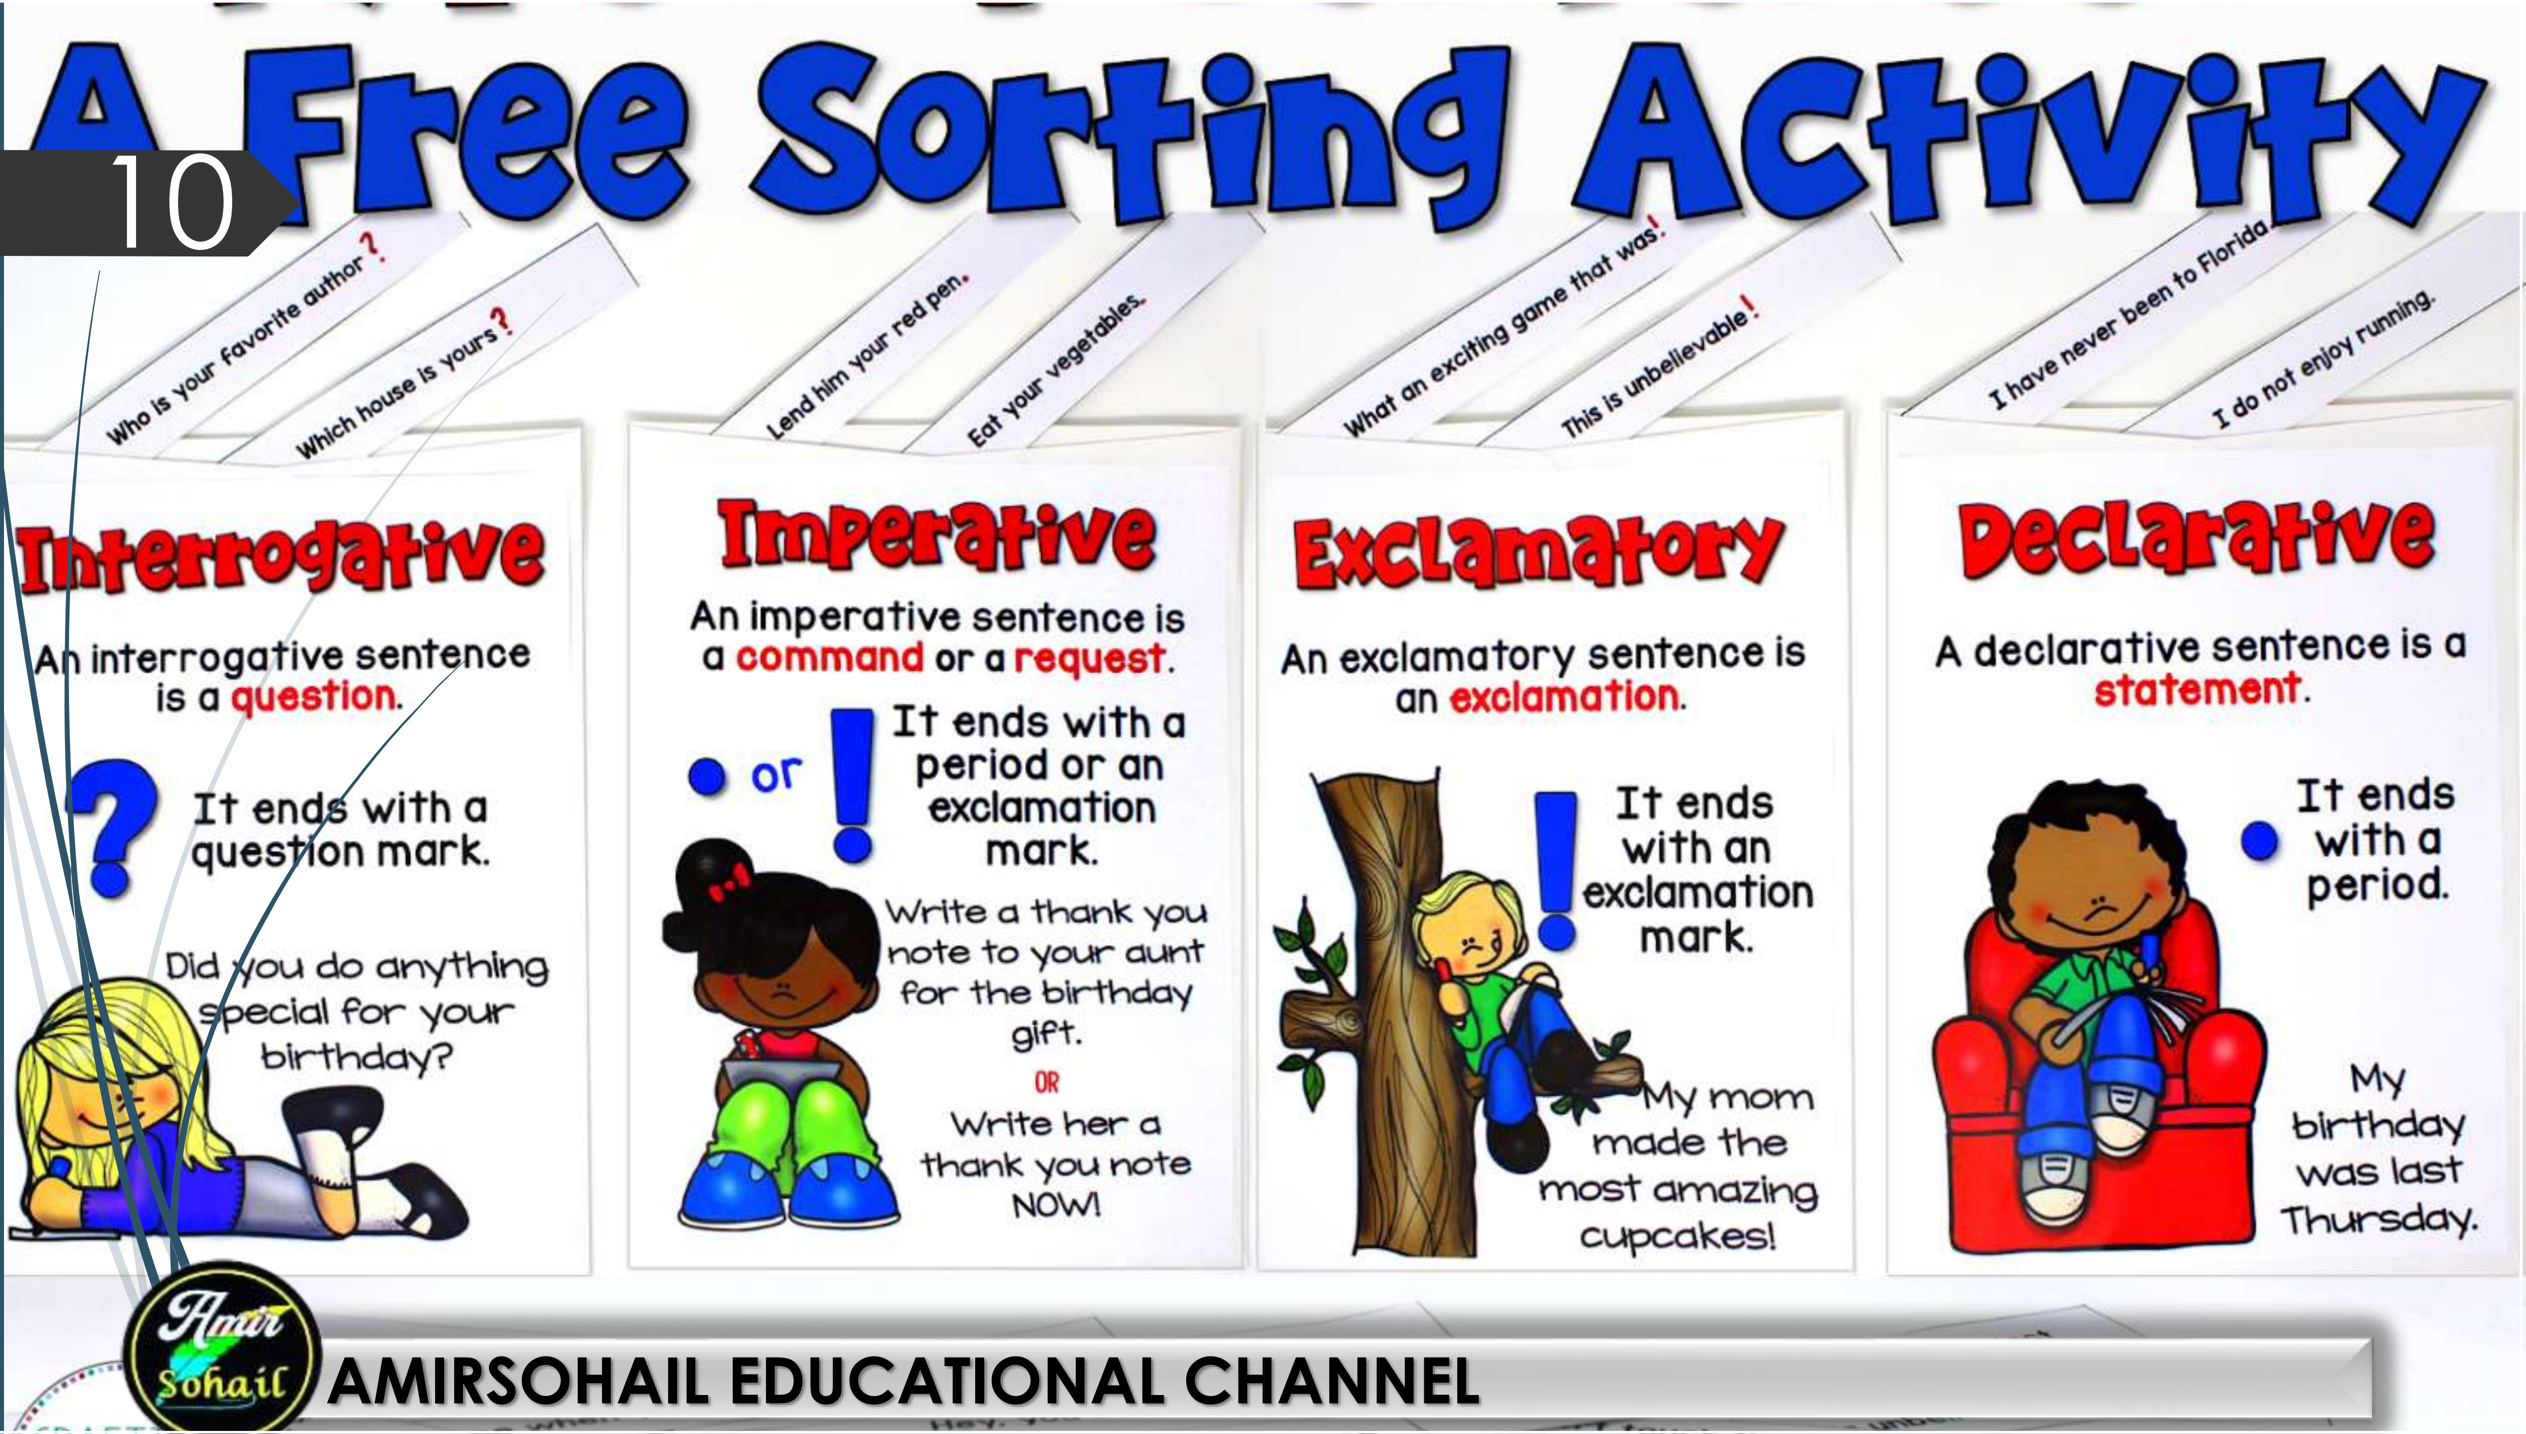

DEFINATION

A sentence that makes a statement or assertion is called a DECLARATIVE OR ASSERTIVE sentence

Example

- I love my country.
- I like freedom.
- John is a good footfall player. Etc…

A Free Sorting Activity
Who is your favorite author?
Which house is yours?
Lend him your red pen.
Eat your vegetables.
What an exciting game that was!
This is unbelievable!
I have never been to Florida.
I do not enjoy running.
Interrogative
An interrogative sentence is a question.
? It ends with a question mark.
Did you do anything special for your birthday?
Imperative
An imperative sentence is a command or a request.
. or ! It ends with a period or an exclamation mark.
Write a thank you note to your aunt for the birthday gift.
OR
Write her a thank you note NOW!
Exclamatory
An exclamatory sentence is an exclamation.
! It ends with an exclamation mark.
My mom made the most amazing cupcakes!
Declarative
A declarative sentence is a statement.
. It ends with a period.
My birthday was last Thursday.

آپ سے درخواست ہے کہ میرے
یوٹیوب چینل
"عامیر سہیل ایجوکیشنل چینل"
(AmirSohail Educational Channel)
کو سبسکرائب کریں تاکہ آپ کو سب سے
پہلے نوٹیفکیشن ملے۔
SUBSCRIBE